Second Arcus Apprentice Program Starts Monday

Local staffing company hires five talented professionals

HARRISBURG, PA. (June 10, 2009) – Arcus, an international provider of talent management and consulting solutions, announced the second Arcus Apprentice Program class. The five enthusiastic go-getters will start work at Arcus Corporate Headquarters in Hummelstown, PA on Monday.

Auditions for the second Arcus Apprentice Program were held over the last few weeks. Auditioners underwent a rigorous interview. Only a handful of candidates made it to the final phase of the interview process: the board room, where they had the opportunity to meet with The Arcus Donald himself, President & CEO, R. Douglas Firestone.

The Apprentice Program, beginning on June 15th, is a three-month intensive training. Each Apprentice will have the unique opportunity to learn the staffing industry, polish his or her sales skills, and play a significant role in our nationally ranked organization.

Here is the new Arcus Apprentice Class:

Eric Ewing, a 2009 Business Information Systems graduate from Bloomsburg graduated Magna cum laude and first in his class. Eric was a member of the Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society and was a Community Assistant/Resident Assistant.

Tim Hoover, a 2007 graduate from Loyola College with a focus on Business Economics, is an all-star swimmer and coach. With experience in sales from Wells Fargo, Tim is a natural competitor.

Olayomi Kilo comes to Arcus with extensive experience with organizations, earning her International Business degree from Messiah College this past Spring. Olayomi is a member of an African Dance Troupe and is an avid drummer. An active leader, she took a leading role with just about every organization on the Messiah Campus!

Steve Kurtz, a 2009 graduate from Lebanon Valley College who majored in Political Science, was LVC Class President and also founded an Audio Support and Installation Company. He is an Eagle Scout and was president of the LVC Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity.

Jacob Stahl attended the YTI Career Institute, specializing in Golf Course Management. Jacob has worked for Arcus since last year and has a proven work ethic as an Arcus Sourcing Specialist. His tremendous personality will be a perfect match for sales.

Add 1 – Arcus Apprentice Program a Success

“My intention with this group was to hire diverse, non-traditional sales-minded people to expand our Sales team. Each one of our new Apprentices offer unique strengths and talents which can extend into our new Sales and Business offerings,” said Firestone. “As this class goes through the Arcus Apprentice Program, there is no doubt in my mind that they will become a strategic player within the organization.”
